

AL CAMPO

What? A trombone player who can sing?

Al Campos, is an American singer, trombonist, multi-instrumentalist, songwriter, producer & educator. Al was born and raised in Los Angeles, CA. He was introduced to music at a very early age by his mother, Adela who was a recording gospel artist. Al started playing drums at age 8, then began to play the trombone by age 11 which he still plays to this day. Later, while living in San Francisco, he started to play the piano and began learning the craft of songwriting.

Al is an artist who is putting together a sound & groove he calls, "Smooth Soul, Funky Jazz & a touch of Latin." And he's doing it Internationally!

Al has spread his musical roots & culture in studios and concert halls all across Europe, as well as 3 concert tours to Tanzania, East Africa where his music was well received. Campos has deep roots in Gospel, Soul, Jazz & Funk which can be heard in his LIVE performances and on his CD recordings.

Doing his own thing: In 2007 Al Campos released his debut CD entitled, "Old School Lovin." A very soulful collection of 11 original compositions written by Al Campos.

The CD was mixed by legendary producer, Mr. Willie Mitchell (Al Green's producer) & his son, Boo Mitchell at Royal Recording Studios in Memphis, Tennessee.

2011 is MINE! Currently now in 2011, Al has been very busy writing & composing new material for his next CD.

Already this September Al Campos & his band, SoulHarmonic have performed many of the new songs from the upcoming CD during his tour to Zanzibar, East Africa, performing at Jahazi Literary & Jazz Festival.

The songs were a huge hit!
